

Dedicated School Nutrition Staff receive Awards at the Annual Conference & Expo

On Saturday, October 21, 2023 FSNA members were honored including a special few who created FSNA Award Submissions to share their achievements. A dozen dedicated school nutrition staff members from throughout the state were presented with awards at the Leadership Celebration of the conference.

The following awards were presented:

SNA State of Florida Manager of the Year, Keila Sanchez, Orange County

SNA State of Florida Employee of the Year, Emelita Bugarin, Santa Rosa County

Chapter President Award – Tina Billado, Charlotte County

Community Humanitarian Award – Darlene Doucette, Martin County

Smart Start Award, Elementary – Rachel Armstead, Martin County

Smart Start Award, Secondary – Natasha Creamer, Franklin County

Super School Award, Elementary – Natasha Creamer, Franklin County

Super School Award, Secondary – Teresa Azevedo, Volusia County

Innovative Idea Award – Employee/Manager – Gayna Beasley, Citrus County

Innovative Idea Award – Administrative/Supervisory – Verena Vancil, Alachua County

Leadership Award – Administrative/Supervisory – Leslie Bell, Santa Rosa County

Members were honored with service awards for staff with 25, 30 and 35 years in school nutrition as well as a 100% membership award for St. Lucie County.

Information on next year's awards are available on our website. Start thinking about your submission as you could be one of next year's honorees!

